HEAVY RAINS

In Kentucky caused swollen streams—Bridges Washed Away and Many Families Evacuated.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Feb. 22.—The North Fork of Kentucky river has risen nearly 40 feet since Saturday morning, and the flood is doing great damage in Perry, Knott, Letcher and Breathitt counties.

Jackson, the county seat of the latter county, is entirely under water Sunday night. At Boonville, which is at the junction of the three forks of the Kentucky river, the rise has been unusually rapid, and much valuable property is in danger.

CHEATED THE GALLOWES.

John Nease, murderer of Marshall Ford, was in jail here for some time. Louisville, Ky., Feb. 22.—John Nease, the murderer of Deputy Marshall Ford, of Breathitt county, was confined in jail at the county jail at Lexington, where he was charged with the murder of Nease's nephew. The murderer had stopped there under pretense of giving his nephew some money.

CRATICAL CONTEST.

The Executive Committee Decides to Hold the 1927 Contest at Lexington, Ky., Feb. 22.—The executive committee of the Intercollegiate Oratorical Association met at the Phoebe hotel, Lexington, Ky., after this year's annual intercollegiate oratorical contests shall be held in Lexington. The contest for 1927 will be held in the Lexington opera house, April 2.

An amendment to the constitution, changing the number of judges from five to six, was made. The petition of the Kentucky Wesleyan college, at Winchester, for admission to the association was refused on the ground that additional appeals from the court would occasion a great change in the program already made up. The meeting was adjourned to March 11.

Judgment Against the O. & M. Road. Louisville, Ky., Feb. 22.—Judge Lorton, of the United States circuit court, Saturday morning awarded the United States Trust Co. of New York, judgment against the receiver of the Chesapeake, Ohio & Maryland Eastern Ry. Co. for $99,914, being principal and interest on defaulted equipment bonds.

The equipment of the road was ordered sold to satisfy the trust company's claim. It will be bought by the Illinois Central, which now operates the road.

Kentucky Woman Pardoned.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 22.—Mrs. Ellen Parker, of Paris, has been pardoned by Gov. Bradley. She was sent to the penitentiary in 1914, along with her husband, for the offense of detaining a woman. She was in such feeble health that she had to be carried from the prison on a stretcher.

He-By Rates at Lancaster.

LANCASTER, Ky., Feb. 22.—The heaviest rain in 12 months fell here Saturday night and Sunday. Reports from the country say creeks and streams are out of their banks and many culverts and bridges have been washed away.

Drowned in the Flood.

MIDDLEBORO, Ky., Feb. 22.—Late news from 125th states that James Chadwell, wife and children were drowned in Powell river. The flood burst the bank and caught them in their house, which was swept away.

Will Sell Coal by the Ton.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Feb. 22.—Lexington coal merchants have decided to sell coal by the ton in future. The cause of this action was the arrest of several for selling 72 pounds to a bushel.

Two Suspects.

NICHOLASVILLE, Ky., Feb. 16.—Because he was removed at church by Rev. Sawyer and afterwards, rebuked by his mother Walter Overstreet, aged 22, and the son of a widow, left his home at Little Hickman Friday night and was seen searching for woods and cliffs for him. Walter left a note of his hair and a note saying that he was going to kill himself. His disappearance was announced at Robert chapel Sunday.

Month's Trial.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Feb. 16.—Dputy United States Marshal George Drake came down from the mountains Monday in charge of 14 moonshiners, to be tried in the federal court at Louisville. He had with him also 25 witnesses to the killing of Marshall Ford by John Nease and Dan Farler, in Breathitt county, January 15. The charge against Nease and Farler will be investigated by the federal grand jury.

WITH A GUN

The Father Guards His Captive Daughter.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Feb. 22.—Parties arriving here from Louisville report that Mrs. Thos. G. Parsons, the young bride who was torn from her husband by the irate father, T. C. Kimmel, at Richmond, last week and taken back to her Rockcastle county home, is pining away of grief and a broken heart. The obstinate parent guards his house with a double-barreled shotgun and threatens death to any who attempt to see his daughter. The sympathy of the community seems to be with the bride, who is said to be pining away at all hazards. Parsons, who, it was thought, went to Indiana, is reported to be in hiding in the vicinity of White with friends, and trouble is feared, as his friends, it is said, will assist him to reclaim his bride.

FIRST OF APRIL

The Extra Session of the Kentucky Legislature, which is under way at the capitol building, is still falling, and as it has fallen so rapidly it is the general belief that high water throughout Eastern Kentucky has done irreparable damage, and possibly many lives have been lost.

PRESIDENT MCKNIGHT

Of the Defunct German National Bank in the County of Marshall.

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 17.—James McKnight, president of the suspended German national bank, is in custody of a deputy United States marshal, being unable to give bond on two warrants charging him with misappropriating the bank funds and with conspiring to misappropriate said funds. The warrants were sworn out by District Attorney Smith who also had one issued for Alderman F. A. Britt, who is charged with aiding and abetting Mr. McKnight to commit the alleged offenses. Britt was arrested Tuesday afternoon and furnished bail. McKnight surrendered to the deputy United States marshal, Col. John Whalen, and Gottlieb Layer, the latter a director of the German national bank. Whalen is already on McKnight's bond on a warrant charging him with making false entries on the bank's books, and the latter did not agree to their separate liability on the $12,000 bonds in the new cases, and at 9:30 o'clock Tuesday night Judge Speed turned the prisoner over to a deputy marshal to take to jail. He will, however, probably keep him in a hotel over night.

Warrants grew out of the discovery of a $2,000 note in the German national bank signed by Alderman F. A. Britt and J. W. Reeder. It bears no interest and no for signature, becoming due a few days ago. The loan was made by Mr. McKnight after banking hours, and charged that the money was used for questionable purposes.

A BUSY NIGHT

Have Murderous Thugs and Burglars in Lexington. Lexington, Ky., Feb. 17.—Harry Scales, of 229 North Upper street, an insurance collector, was snatched and robbed of his pocket money and jewelry at 7 o'clock Tuesday evening. George Anderson, Ind., was found unconscious in a narrow street at daylight. He had been snatched and robbed.

The residence of J. T. Hawkins, 611 Broadway, was burglarized Tuesday morning while the family was at breakfast. A gold watch and a diamond ring were taken. C. B. Ross' dry goods house and J. L. Rogers' grocery were visited by burglars Monday night. No arrests.

TO SAVE BOARD

It Is Claimed an Old Woman Was Cruelly Murdered. HONOLULU, Ky., Feb. 16.—The evening trial of Jesse Loyd and wife for the murder of Mrs. Kitty Warren, is now being held. Intense feeling prevails, but the evidence has not progressed far enough to indicate the strength of the prosecution. Loyd is 69 years old, his wife is 53, and the murdered woman, Mrs. Warren, was 45. They had, it is alleged, made attacks on her previously, and it is claimed they were tired of supporting her, and killed her to save the board.

MISS BRECKINRIDGE

Successful in the First Step of Her Maidenhood. LEXINGTON, Ky., Feb. 19.—Miss Sophronia Breckinridge, Kentucky's first woman lawyer, was successful in the first step of her maidenhood. She filed suit in the circuit court Wednesday morning for $10,000 damages against Squire Marshall, a merchant of Covington, who is alleged to have seduced her. She also sues for divorce.

McKnight Unable to Give Bail

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 19.—President J. M. McKnight, of the suspended German national bank, spent the day in the United States marshal's office, still being unable to furnish bail. McKnight was taken to jail Thursday morning because their new foreman from Cincinnati issued a rule against printers appearing in the office while McKnight was in jail.

Mother and Daughter Dead

CYNTHIANA, Ky., Feb. 18.—Miss Jennie Moore, aged 19, second daughter of Mr. W. M. Moore, ex-speaker of the house of representatives, died at 10 o'clock Wednesday afternoon of bronchitis. Her mother died from the same disease last Thursday.
